

The Fitchburg State College
Office of International Education invites faculty, staff, and students to

INTERNATIONAL MONTH

November 2008

- | | | |
|---------------------------------|---|--|
| Monday, November 3rd | Parade of Flags
Come witness a colorful parade, meet international students studying here at Fitchburg State, and learn how you can make a difference in the world | Hammond Lounge @ 12:15-1:00 PM |
| Saturday, November 8th | *Master Class with members of Noche Flamenca
Delve into the intoxicating, soulful expression of flamenco dance. | Parkinson Gymnasium @ 12:00 PM |
| Saturday, November 8th | *Noche Flamenca
Experience this graceful and hypnotic Latin dance style that brings together history, culture and emotion with the traditional sweeping movement of the arms and stomping of the feet. | Weston Auditorium @ 7:15-10:00 PM |
| Wednesday, November 12th | International Café
Games and socializing with students from all over the world | Game room @300-4:30PM |
| Thursday, November 13th | *Italian Neo-Realism Film Series: Umberto D (1952)
A film that tells the story of an elderly, recently retired clerk as he tries to find dignity and meaning in his life. | Ellis White @ 2:00 & 7:00 PM |
| Sunday, November 16th | Indian Film: Taare Zameen Par
Eight-year-old Ishaan hates school, where his days are filled with struggles with his studies and the humiliations of his peers... until a gifted teacher sees his glorious talents. Come enjoy this free showing of this award-winning 2008 film. | Ellis White @ 7:00-9:00 PM |
| Monday, November 17th | *The Devil Music Ensemble presents Red Heroine
Devil Music Ensemble returns after last year's sell-out for another engagement offering a unique multimedia experience and creating a synthesis of live music and movie. This original DME score for Red Heroine is the only score ever produced for the film. Episode 6 of Red Knight-Errant (aka Red Heroine), the only surviving episode of the 13-part serial, is also one of the earliest extant silent martial arts films from China. | Kent Recital Hall @ 7:00-9:00 PM |
| Tuesday, November 18th | Study Abroad Information Session
Want to study exercise science in Australia? Psychology in England? Business in China? Dr. Clare O'Brien, Director of International Education at Fitchburg State College, will describe the study abroad application process and answer questions about timelines, programs selection, and costs. | Hammond Alumni "C" @ 3:30-4:30 PM |
| Wednesday, November 19th | International Festival
The many Fitchburg State College students, faculty and staff members who hail from other countries bring a myriad of experiences, stories, and talents to our campus. Join us for exhibits, activities, and foods that celebrate dozens of different cultures. | Hammond Lounge @ 2:00-4:00 PM |

- Thursday, November 20th 2009 China Summer Program Information Session Hammond Alumni "A" @ 3:30-4:30 PM
Want to study computer science or business with Fitchburg State College professors in the Middle Kingdom? Come find out how you can study in China this coming summer.
- Thursday, November 20th International Studies Keynote Address: "Education and Global Security" Kent Recital Hall @ 7:30-9:00 PM
Dr. Sean Kay, Professor of Politics and Government & Chair of International Studies, Ohio Wesleyan University
- Friday, November 21st International Studies Roundtable Luncheon Holmes Dining Commons @ 12:30 PM
Faculty and students are invited to chat with Dr. Sean Kay, International Studies Keynote Speaker.
- Sunday, November 23rd Chinese Film: A World Without Thieves Ellis White @ 7:30-9:30PM
What happens when one-half of a pair of romantically involved thieves decides to leave the profession? Come see one of the most popular films from China of the past few years – for free.

Events presented by CenterStage*