FALCONS COMPETE VERSUS DIVISION I COMPETITION AT BOSTON UNIVERSITY MEET

BOSTON, Mass. – The Fitchburg State Falcon track teams journeyed to Boston on Friday and Saturday to compete in the BU Invitational which hosted 45 schools from across the country going head-to-head with Division I powerhouses such as Duke University, Providence College and Seton Hall.

Brian Schell added his name to the list of Falcons who have qualified for the Division III Championships with a mark of 68.33 in the 500M run.

FSC sent only a partial squad to this meet, but they made a lot of noise as nearly all athletes turned in season best performances including: Brandon Jean - Shot (37-1) and Weight; Erin Abbott - 200M (31.06); Peter Tervo - 200M (23.97); Chris Grubel - 200M (24.01); Devon Jennings - 200M (24.37); Kyle Callahan - 200M (24.17); Julie Almstrom - 400M (64.82); Ali Landry - 400M (67.41); Jon Miganowicz - 800M; Brad Harkins - 800M; Tim Wood - 800M; Adam Parslow - 3000M (9:29) and Kyle Schaeffer and Brian Lawlor in the Mile. Lawlor, a baseball player turned distance runner, turned in the most improved performance as he knocked 5 seconds off his mile PR to cross the line in 4:56.18.

The entire FSC team will travel to Maine next weekend to compete at the University of Southern Maine.
